Wayne Presbyterian Church

Sharing the Ministry of Jesus Christ through Worship, Education and Mission

Welcome! What to expect in worship ...

Thank you for joining us at Wayne Presbyterian Church. We are glad you are here. Worship is an opportunity to encounter God's grace. We receive grace in hearing God's Word, sacraments, music, liturgy, and in our relationships with each other. Grace also frees us from anxiety and perfectionism. Sing the wrong line of the hymn? Forget the name of the person next to you? Your child hollers during the prayers? Worry not. Here, grace abounds! Grace is God's free gift of love that sets us free, and we hope that you will feel the freedom of Christ in this service.

Liturgy

Liturgy literally means "the work of the people." We think worship should be interactive. It is designed to engage the whole person—heart, mind, soul, and body. Therefore, we sing, speak, stand, sit, eat, watch, think, and sit in silence. If worship is a performance, it is the church's performance for God. Each week we do our best to make sure that God is praised using everything we have.

Prayer

Our lives are full of lament and celebration. We therefore come to God with honesty recognizing that God wants to hear our deepest pain and most pressing questions, and loves to see the Church joyfully celebrate God's great gifts.

Offering

We give tithes and offerings as a response to God's grace in our lives. Knowing that all good blessings come from God, the offering is an opportunity to joyfully spread that blessing throughout the world. Guests are not expected or obligated to give.

Communion

Christ is the host of the communion feast. Everyone who is searching to know Christ is welcome at the table.

Childcare

We love children. As a child-cherishing church, we provide a variety of educational opportunities for children. They are welcome in the worship service or in Sunday school. We also have a lovely nursery staffed by professional childcare workers if you need a break.

Masks

Masks are now OPTIONAL for all services and events.

Pentecost

According to the Day of Pentecost story in Acts 2:1-13, God gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to empower witnesses to the resurrection. Sounds from heaven, cosmic language, the rush of a mighty ruach (wind, spirit, breath) invaded the house in which the apostles gathered, and appeared to them as a burning fire. Tongues of fire touched their nerve centers. A power — the unseen power of God — moved among them and gripped them. The Holy Spirit is unseen, like the wind, which is why the Old Testament calls it ruach YHWH, "the wind, or breath, of God" (cf. John 3:8). The Spirit is the "unseenness of God" working among us.

Therefore, on the Day of Pentecost, we celebrate God's gift of Holy Spirit which draws us together as one people, helps us to comprehend what God is doing in the world, and empowers us to proclaim, in word and in deed, God's plan of reconciling all people in the name of Christ (Ephesians 1:10).

Words of Welcome

Call to Worship

One: Welcome to this place:

All: where children and seasoned citizens sit side by side, where God has been, God is, and God will always be.

One: Welcome to this place:

All: where we find God's love, where the Spirit teaches us new songs.

One: Welcome to this place, where all is made ready by our God:

All: where we bring our hunger, and find food; where we bring our brokenness, and find healing; where we bring our very selves, and find acceptance.

One: Let us worship God.

+ Hymn 280 Come, O Spirit, Dwell Among Us

EBENEZER

+ Prayer of Confession

Spirit of God,

you are the breath of creation,

the wind of change that blows through our lives,

opening us up to new dreams and new hopes.

Forgive us our closed minds,

which barricade themselves against new ideas,

preferring the past to what you might want to do through us tomorrow.

Forgive us our closed eyes,

which fail to see the needs of your world,

blind to opportunities of service and love.

Forgive us our closed hearts,

which limit our affections to ourselves and to others.

~ Silent Prayer ~

+ Assurance of God's Grace

One: Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel.

All: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

+ Response of Praise: (Hymn 288)

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on us;

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on us.

Melt us, mold us, fill us, use us.

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on us.

+ Passing of the Peace

One: The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

+ Doxology and Prayer of Dedication

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen

First Scripture Reading: Acts 2:1-13

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every people under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs - in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

One: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

+ Hymn 287 Gracious Spirit, Heed Our Pleading

NJOO KWETU, ROHO MWEMA

Second Scripture Reading: Acts 2: 14-21

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Fellow Jews and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

One: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Invitation
Great Prayer of Thanksgiving & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Wayne Presbyterian Church is blessed to have our own Chamber Orchestra, a unique music ministry offering for our congregation. Two dozen dedicated volunteer musicians, including professionals, amateurs, and talented students, rehearse each Wednesday and play for Sunday worship every month or two during the program year, which includes leading congregational hymns. If you play a standard orchestral instrument (especially strings, clarinet or bassoon), we would like to invite you to join our orchestra. Participating in our music ministries at Wayne Presbyterian is a great way to be involved in our congregational life and connect with people. Even if it has been a while since you have taken your instrument out of its case, we can find a way to include you and help you get up to speed. If you are interested, please introduce yourself to Kirsten Santos Rutschman, Associate Director of Music, after today's service, or send her an email at kirsten@waynepres.org.
