July and August — We will continue meeting through the summer months. We will kick off July with Katy and David:

- Katy Shevel, Associate Pastor for Congregational Life will lead our discussion on July 1 with a preview of her upcoming "Companions in the Wilderness" Adult Education class scheduled for Sunday mornings this fall. She will explore the faith of the early Desert Mothers and their unique monastic experience. On July 15 Katy will lead a discussion of some African American readings of Pauline scripture.
- David King, Pastoral Intern 2021 will lead on July 8th with a discussion of Psalm 139 and Theologies of Surveillance. David will be back on July 22nd to talk about Race, Representation, and Resurrection. David just completed his first year of seminary at Princeton Theological Seminary, and is a graduate of Haverford College, having earned B.A.'s in Philosophy and Religious Studies, with high honors in the latter. Welcome David!

Please keep an eye on the weekly News & Views email blasts and the WPC website for further details regarding programming for July 29th and the month of August.

Thursday Morning Men's Ministry is an informal group of Wayne Presbyterian Church that meets (via Zoom until further notice) at 7:00 am each Thursday. It is a wonderful opportunity for relationships, prayer, and learning. The program year runs from September through June.

The morning begins with prayer & fellowship. This is followed by learning time: a 30-minute presentation typically from professors from Eastern University. We usually wrap up at 8 am, although the speakers often stay online for a while to answer questions and chat.

Are you looking to explore the world of history, bible study, astronomy, philosophy, theology, and a host of Bible-related topics? This might be just what you are looking for. The lineup of speakers will challenge your mind and fill your spirit. Zoom in for a morning or two or the entire series. You will be glad you did.

For more information or to get on the email Zoom invite list or on the list to attend in person please contact Tim Pretz at tpretz@eastern.edu or Sal Ambrosio at sambrosio55@gmail.com
