Interim Pastor Nominating Committee News

The Interim Pastor Nominating Committee has been formed. The committee is chaired by Tracy Jarman and consists of Dory Hoxie, Pamela Jensen, Jennie Hagin, and Tim Zaro. A job description has been written by the committee and once approved by Philadelphia Presbytery the position will be advertised. After candidate reviews and interviews the committee will have a selection for the Session to approve within the next couple of months. Anyone having suggestions or questions please feel free to contact Tracy Jarman or any member of the Interim PNC.

Good news from our Finance Director, Liz Wagner

There are few times when good news trickles from a finance office, particularly now during our current mid/post pandemic environment. So, I am excited to share delightful, thrilling, joyous news! The operating results of the year just ended proclaim that this congregation contributed 102% of the pledges budgeted for 2021! What a wonderful display of God's provision and your commitment to this community of faith.
