Join us in welcoming Collette Anderson, our new Interim Worship & Music Administrative Assistant!

Collette joins us on a part-time basis as we navigate a period of transition within the church office. She is assisting with various administrative tasks, such as creating the Sunday bulletin, creating worship slides, managing the Powerpoint on the screen in the Connector, and providing much support to efforts of the Music Ministry.

While new to the role, Collette is not new to WPC. She began working as an assistant to the Children's Choir program in September 2016. An accomplished singer, she has substituted for both our soprano and alto soloists for Sunday worship and in 2019 sang in The Wayne Oratorio Society's performances of Elijah at both Wayne Presbyterian Church and the National Cathedral.

Music: A Vessel for the Sacred

Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. with Katy Shevel and Tim Evers A Three Class Series March 9th, 16th, and 23rd in the Chapel

Music is beautiful. It stirs our hearts and shapes our imaginations. Human beings have always been driven to express ourselves creatively through music and the arts. In the Wayne Oratorio Society's upcoming concert series this April, we are invited to experience how great music renders our innermost beliefs about God and the world around us. Karl Jenkins' The Peacemakers, drawing on texts from some of the greatest theological thinkers of our time, and Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, which sets the "Ode to Joy" by Friedrich Schiller, summon us to experience what the theological themes of peace and joy sound like. Join Tim Evers and Katy Shevel for a collaborative three-part discussion interpreting the theology, context, and beauty behind the music of Karl Jenkins' The Peacemakers and Beethoven's Ninth.

Hospitality Update - Note from Rev. Katy:

Our Hospitality Steering Committee has completed its work! Coming out of this pandemic, our hope is to rebuild connections within our community of faith and to refocus our energies on outreach to visitors. We have identified several key ministries and programs that we would like to launch (and in some cases relaunch) in spring and summer of 2022. To name a few, we would like to restart the Andrew Ministry Program, the Stephen Ministry Program, and to launch some new small group ministries. Please read our complete summary report and list of recommendations.

Now I need some help from all of you! If you are interested in nurturing the practice of hospitality and community outreach in our church, please email Katy.

Elder / Deacon Installation
